The social class of all persons aged 15 years and over is determined in a similar way to the socio-economic group. In contrast to socio-economic group, however, social class is based on an ordinal scale with 1 being the highest social class. The social class of family dependants is derived from the social class of the parent having the highest social class. The codes are as follows:

- Social Class 1 = Professional workers
- Social Class 2 = Managerial and technical
- Social Class 3 = Non-manual
- Social Class 4 = Skilled manual
- Social Class 5 = Semi-skilled
- Social Class 6 = Unskilled
- Social Class 7 = All others gainfully occupied
