

Maritime Safety Act, 2005

Cavan County Council

Notice of making of Cavan County Council (Watercraft) Bye-Laws, 2008

Notice is hereby given, in accordance with the above legislation, that Cavan County Council has made Bye-Laws for the purpose of regulating and controlling the operation of craft in waters in the functional area of Cavan County Council. There is restricted use of personal watercraft (including Jet Skies) and fast powerboats on the following lakes within the jurisdiction of Cavan County Council;

- Lough Sheelin
- Annagh Lake
- Lough Ramor
- Brackley Lough
- Lough Oughter
- Lough Gowna

These Bye Laws were made by resolution of Cavan County Council on 11th February, 2008 and came into force on 12th March 2008.

A copy of these bye laws are available free of charge, in booklet format, during ordinary office hours at the offices of the Environment Section, 17, Farnham Street, Cavan, at reception, Cavan Courthouse (Farnham Street), Cavan County Council Area Offices and in all public libraries in Cavan. The Bye-laws are also available under the Environment / Environmental Management section of the council's website at www.cavancoco.ie.

You are advised to read this booklet which will describe fully the requirements of the Bye-laws

These Bye-Laws should be read in conjunction with the Maritime Safety Act, 2005. Section 6(2)(a) provides that a person who operates a craft in contravention of these Bye-Laws is guilty of an offence and is liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding €1,000 in the case of a first offence.