#BACKIN5 CAMPAIGN

“I’ll just leave my car in this parking space for five minutes.”

‘Back in 5’ reminds motorists that it is an offence to park in a disabled parking space without an official Disabled Drivers Parking Permit. Offenders are dealt a fixed charge notice for €150, rising to €225 if not paid in the first 28 days, which results in a very expensive five minutes.

Ask yourself.....

1. Have you ever parked your vehicle in an accessible parking space for people with disabilities?
2. Have you ever said ‘I’ll be back in 5 minutes’, ‘I’m just running to the bank’, ‘I wont be long’. As an excuse?
3. Will this campaign make you think twice about using accessible car spaces in the future?
