Changes in historic planning reference numbers

Updated planning reference numbers

The planning reference numbers for all planning applications received between 1979 and 1993 have been updated. The original planning reference number is now preceded with a 2 digit number identifying the year the planning application was received.

See below the range of planning reference numbers received for each year from 1979 to 1993. Prefix the original planning number with the last 2 digits of the year it was received to give you the new planning number.
