

CAVAN CALLING

26 – 30 JULY 2023

CAVAN IS CALLING YOU HOME

@cavancalling

MIAN Photography

Thursday, 27th July, 12noon-4pm

CUILCAGH LAKELANDS GEOPARK FAMILY DAY

Killykeen Forest Park

A day of Geopark family fun and learning at Killykeen Forest Park with Cuilcagh Lakelands UNESCO Global Geopark. Water activities, guided walks, fossil hunt, rock detectives, and much more! Free event.

web: cuilcaghlakelands.org

email: info@cuilcaghlakelands.org

phone: 00353 71 985 3692

Thursday, 27th July, 4pm-7pm

CAVAN CALLING YOUR BUSINESS

Cavan Digital Hub, Dublin Road Cavan

Welcoming entrepreneurs from across the globe to enjoy an insight into Cavan's rich and varied businesses, with special guest speakers. Free event. Booking details below.

web: localenterprise.ie/Cavan

email: localenterprise@cavancoco.ie

phone: 00353 49 437 7200

Thursday, 27th July, 8pm

AFRICAN GOSPEL CHOIR DUBLIN

Urney Church, Farnham Street, Cavan, H12 V903

The 15+ member ensemble blends elements of African Gospel, African-American spirituals, a capella, and American popular music. The choir's love of music and joy for life illuminates through their music. Booking details below.

web: www.cavanarts.ie

email: artsoffice@cavancoco.ie

phone: 00353 49 437 8548

Thursday, 27th July, 8pm

MARCUS MAGEE AND THE HOLLAW MEN

Ramor Theatre, Virginia

A night of classic Cavan songs and Irish traditional folk gems from local sensation Marcus Magee and his band of Cavan's finest musicians. Booking details below.

web: www.townhallcavan.com

email: townhallcavan@cavancoco.ie

phone: 00353 49 438 0494

Friday 28th July, 6:30pm

DIASPORA STORIES BOOK LAUNCH

Johnston Central Library, Farnham St, Cavan

Launch of specially commissioned Diaspora publication, featuring men and women who left Cavan in search of a new life, researched and compiled by Jonathan Smyth, Cavan Library Service. Free event.

Friday, 28th July, 8pm

THE SONGS AND POEMS OF PERCY FRENCH

Ramor Theatre

Laugh, sing and maybe even shed a tear with the 18 strong Percy French Troubadours, who invite you to join with them for this evening of songs, poems and sketches by Percy French. Featuring all-time favourites, 'Come Back Paddy Reilly', 'Are Ye Right There Michael?' and many more. Booking details below.

web: www.townhallcavan.com

email: townhallcavan@cavancoco.ie

phone: 00353 49 438 0494

Friday, 28th July, 8pm

'IN THE MIDST OF PLENTY'

Townhall Cavan

'In the Midst of Plenty' is a new work of historical drama set in 1847 at the height of Ireland's Great Famine, featuring an original score of contemporary Irish folk music.

web: www.townhallcavan.com

email: townhallcavan@cavancoco.ie

phone: 00353 49 438 0494

Saturday, 29th July, 11am till late

CAVAN DAY –

STREET CARNIVAL AND FAMILY DAY

Townhall Street/Market Square/Farnham Street, Cavan Town

On Saturday, 29th July, Cavan Town will play host to a special 'Cavan Day' family fun spectacular featuring Street Performance, Food and Craft Markets, Live Music, Environmental Demonstrations, and Multicultural Displays, culminating in a concert spectacular by The Boomtown Rats and a fireworks display overlooking the town.

On-street performance will include Rogu with their spectacular 'Firestorm' show, jugglers, stilt walkers, acrobatics, circus, and more. We've also paired up with Rochester Fringe Festival from Cavan's Sister County, Monroe County in New York State, to present the fantastic 'Bushwhacked' and their hilarious improvised antics. Free event.

Saturday, 29th July

CAVAN DAY CO

The Egg

SOLD OUT

...his own Pete

...Crowe.

For more info.

web: www.townhallcavan.com

email: townhallcavan@cavancoco.ie

phone: 00353 49 438 0494

Saturday 29th & Sunday, 30th July, 10am-5pm

CAVAN COUNTY MUSEUM MILITARY SHOW

AND FAMILY FUN DAY

Cavan County Museum, Ballyjamesduff

Join us for a day of all things military, featuring military vehicles, re-enactments and plenty of fun for all.

Free event. Call 00353 49 854 4070 or visit cavanmuseum.ie for more information

Lorraine Teevan Photography

Saturday, 29th July, 1pm

CONCERT BY VLTALVA STRING QUARTET

Urney Church, Farnham Street, Cavan, H12 V903

Acclaimed string quartet Vltalva play from an ever-expanding repertoire, from traditional Irish music to film themes, or baroque classics to pop and light jazz - this concert offers something for everyone!

web: www.cavanarts.ie

email: artsoffice@cavancoco.ie

phone: 00353 49 437 8548

Saturday, 29th July, 3pm

MEL DOHERTY BOOK LAUNCH

Townhall Cavan

Launch of the autobiography of one of the most recognisable faces on the Cavan Cultural Circuit over the past six decades, the inimitable Mel Doherty. Free event.

web: www.townhallcavan.com

email: townhallcavan@cavancoco.ie

phone: 00353 49 438 0494

For more information
visit: www.cavancalling.com

Cavan Calling is a Global Cavan Homecoming taking place from 26-30 July 2023. Cavan people and groups worldwide and those with an affinity for the county are invited home to Cavan for a celebration of our shared heritage.

Get involved:
visit www.cavancalling.com
or email info@cavandiaspora.com

Comhairle Contae an Chabháin
Cavan County Council